INSURANCE

This is quite a feature of my business. I represent two strong and liberal companies, whose contracts are free from the usual numerous restrictions that some other companies have, which really have the effect of insuring the company instead of the insured.

No trouble to explain the policies and quote rates.

ACCIDENT TICKETS — These are adapted to persons who do not desire yearly insurance, but who wish protection on short trips, etc. I issue them without written application, taking effect immediately.

GREAT EDUCATIONAL RALLY

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED EFFECTING
PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

DR. RILEY GAVE TIMELY WARNING

If Bryan Does Not Want the School,
Houston Will Go After It.

Dr. Carroll Here.

The educational rally was continued yesterday with increased enthusiasm. The morning session opened at 11 o'clock with devotional exercises. The choir sang "Simply Trusting," and prayer was offered by Rev. S. L. Morris.

Dr. Butler introduced the first speaker in the person of Rev. H. C. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Navasota, who delivered the address upon the laying of the corner stone of the new First Baptist church in this city. Dr. Butler, in introducing the speaker, stated that he was greatly gratified with the results of the rally and especially with the hearty and active sympathy and help of the visiting brethren and of scores he met on his recent visit to La Porte. He mentioned particularly the encouragement received from Dr. Truitt and Dr. Gambrell of Dallas, and Dr. Wilson, president of Baylor Female College at Belton. The latter expresses the hope that Bryan may be able to build up as good a school as is maintained at Belton.

Rev. Smith read from the second chapter of Daniel the story of the dream of Nebuchadnezzar, and offered prayer as a preface to his address. He announced his subject as "Wisdom and Power," and his discourse dealt with the relation between the two and the meaning of each taken separately. The speaker emphasized the barrenness of education without God in it, and enlarged upon the great opportunity offered to Bryan to secure this great institution for Christian education.

Rev. M. T. Andrews of Marlin, a boyhood friend of Dr. Butler, was the next speaker. Rev. Andrews is an earnest and consecrated man, a profound thinker and impressive speaker. His remarks were predicated upon the subject, "Looking Ahead," and he made a strong plea for Christian education as a remedy for many of the evils of our day, mentioning particularly divorce and race suicide. He also dwelt upon the great opportunity afforded by such an enterprise to those who have the means for doing a grand work in building up the church at home and sending educated consecrated missionaries to foreign fields.

At the conclusion of Rev. Andrews' remarks, Dr. Butler announced that he desired to have Dr. Riley make an important statement before the meeting, and Dr. Riley took the floor. He stated that speaking on the project in hand had been going on for two days and every phase of the subject had been discussed in kaleidoscopic succession, and that it was now time to do something. The whole matter, he declared, hinges upon whether or not Bryan wants the school. "If you don't want it and are not going to build it," said he, "the matter will be taken up at Houston, where it has been talked of previous to this movement, and where the subject of location in that city has been under consideration. I am not here to banter or to challenge, and think Bryan is the best place for it, but we must have this kind of a school in this part of the state and we are going to have it. We are deferring action for a reasonable time in favor of Bryan, as the place of incomparable advantages, and the point is what will Bryan do? You people know what you can do, and it is time to do it. The matter has already been deferred too long." Dr. Riley's remarks clearly indicated that the Houston people meant business, and that they will proceed actively in the matter at an early date unless Bryan gets busy.

Dr. Butler expressed appreciation of Dr. Riley's remarks and said that while he confidently believed Bryan will meet the requirements, and that he will give $1000 towards it, if Bryan fails he will throw his help and influence unreservedly in the scale in favor of Houston.

The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. M. T. Andrews.

In this connection The Eagle is gratified to be able to state that $5600 of the $10,000 required has already been subscribed, and there are more people to see yet than have been seen by the committee. If the rest come up like those who have been interviewed the amount is easily within reach, and the Eagle believes that it will be secured.

Another enthusiastic meeting was held at 4 o'clock with Dr. Butler presiding. Rev. E. Ammons of Houston opened the meeting with scripture reading and exhortation, and Dr. J. M. Carroll of Waco led in prayer. Dr. Butler called upon a number of persons present for expressions regarding the movement and response was made by Mrs. M. W. Sims, Dr. R. H. Wilson of Kurten, Prof. J. H. Allen, Rev. J. L. Crane, Dr. I. F. Betts, A. W. Buchanan and Rev. J. M. Bullock. Each speaker's remarks were earnest and enthusiastic, and it was felt that Mrs. Sims struck the key note in the advocacy of a girls' school when she said: "When we educate a boy we educate an individual; when we educate a girl we educate a family."

Dr. Betts' remarks were of special interest by reason of his reference to the Chappel Hill Female College. He said that he wished God speed for the movement in hand from the bottom of his heart and that the arguments in favor of the school are unanswerable. It will help Bryan from every standpoint. Continuing he said: "I saw last year that Bryan was an ideal location, hence we made an effort to have the Chappel Hill College moved to Bryan. We met with such positive opposition that we abandoned that idea, but have not given up the idea of establishing a Methodist college for girls here. Our plans are taking shape. The subject will be presented next week to the Huntsville District Conference, and we hope to be able to make a definite proposition to the Texas Conference at Pittsburgh in November. The two schools will not conflict, but will help each other. You have one of the finest schools in the state in the Allen Academy. Let the ambition of Bryan be that of becoming a great educational center—the Athens of Texas. God speed you in your work."

The rally closed with the meeting last night, the feature of which was the splendid address by Dr. J. M. Carroll of Waco. Dr. Carroll's subject was: "Advantages of a School of this Character to the Town in Which it is Located."

At the conclusion of the address the following resolutions, effecting definite and permanent organization, were read and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, this meeting has been called in the interest of Christian

whereas we recognize a denominational need in this section of the country for the existence of such a school as the committee appointed by the First Baptist Church of Bryan has projected, be it resolved:

1st. That it is the sense of this body, composed of representative Baptists from over the state, that we as a denomination endorse and co-operate heartily in the establishment and maintenance of said school—putting into it our sympathies, our money, our prayers and our girls.

2nd. That as the A. and M. College of Texas and Allen Academy for boys are located at Bryan, we believe that Bryan is an ideal location for a girl's school. And it is the sense of this body that if Bryan raises a bonus of $10,000 within the next ten days, said bonus to be payable in three equal installments, Sept. 1st, 1905, 1906 and 1907, respectively, and subscriptions to said bonus being with the understanding that the Baptists subscribe $40,000 in said three years, that the school be located at Bryan, otherwise the question of location to be finally referred to the Board of Directors.

3rd. That it is the sense of this body that the Baptists of Texas and especially of South and East Texas, should make a determined and earnest effort to raise not less than $40,000 within three years for the equipment and maintenance of this school.

4th. That this school shall be named "The Texas Woman's College," and that its government shall vest in a board of directors consisting of twenty-one members and divided into three groups of seven each, whose members shall serve for the term of one, two and three years, respectively.

The first board to be group "A" one year: Rev. M. T. Andrews,

Marlin; Rev. S. R. McClung, Harvey; Rev. E. Ammons, Houston; J. H. Suber, College Station; Rev. Morgan of Hempstead; Rev. H. C. Smith, Navasota; J. H. Drenan, Calvert.

Group "B," two years: Dr. J. B. Gammell, Dallas; Rev. J. M. Bullock, A. W. Buchanan, T. R. Batte, Bryan; G. W. Carroll, Beaumont; Dr. J. W. Howell, Bryan; Dr. G. W. Truitt, Dallas.

Group "C," three years: Dr. G. B. Butler, Bryan; Dr. Luther Little, Galveston; H. O. Boatwright, F. M. Law, Bryan; Rev. T. L. Fulbright, Caldwell; C. C. Slaughter, Dallas; Dr. Giles Taylor, Corsicana.

Furthermore that an Executive Committee of five be constituted from the membership of the board which shall have full and plenary powers of a full board to transact any and all business during the absence of a full sitting of the board. Said Executive Committee to be for the first year: G. B. Butler, chairman; A. W. Buchanan, T. R. Batte, F. M. Law, and J. H. Suber.

Vacancies in the board and executive committee to be filled by the board.

There was some discussion regarding the manner provided for perpetuating the board, and a motion prevailed authorizing the members of the board, after a careful consideration of the resolutions, to make such changes as may be found necessary or advisable.

DIES IN BALL ROOM.

Priest Hastened to Dying Woman and Administered Last Rites.

New York, June 28.—Surrounded by groups of frightened men and women, with the echo of dance music still ringing in their ears, Mrs. James Kirwin has suddenly expired in the ball room of an Ulmer Park pavilion. The woman was fifty-five years old. She was attacked by apoplexy in the midst of a dance at an old-fashioned barbecue given by a church society. A priest hastened to her side and administered the last rites of the church while the frightened dancers gathered about and with wraps and shawls tried to make the dying woman's last moments comfortable. The tragic scene quickly put an end to the festivities.

Asked to Reconsider.

Honolulu, June 28.—The chamber of commerce has unanimously adopted resolutions regretting the resignation of Governor Carter and asking him to reconsider his action. The executive committee of the Republican central committee adopted a similar resolution by a vote of five to three. A committee from the sugar planters visited the governor in relation to his resignation but he said that he could not see any reason why he should change his mind.

The first board to be group "A" one year: Rev. M. T. Andrews,

SOCIALISTS SURPRISED

Cossacks Descend Upon Them In a Secret Conference.

BUILD BARRICADES.

Young Jew Threw a Stone at the Military, Resulting in a Volley Being Fired into Crowd and Twenty Killed.

Warsaw, June 28.—A secret meeting of Socialists in the forests of Kuerz near Lodz was surprised by Cossacks. Eighteen of the Socialists were wounded and 180 arrests were made. The authorities received word that the meeting was being held and sent a squadron of Cossacks, who surrounded the forests and fired into the Socialists. Such advice as have arrived here from Warsaw indicate that the strike is only partially successful and that the authorities are keeping the situation pretty well in hand. The ring leaders and agitators are being arrested by the whites.

Over 1000 have been put behind the bars up to this time. Following the example of the Lodz workmen, the workmen of Warsaw built barricades at five places and blood was shed in defending them. A young Jew threw a stone at a passing patrol, whereupon the Cossacks drove a crowd of people into a courtyard and fired a volley at them, killing or wounding twenty persons, including a woman and boy. The strikers of the Boamanshvede factory, on being fired upon by the son of the proprietor, retaliated by wrecking the establishment. Great pains are being taken to appease the reserve men, who are to be called to colors at the coming mobilization in Moscow and St. Petersburg.

DATES ACCEPTED.

First Ten Days of August the Meeting Will Take Place.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The foreign office has issued a communication confirming the statement made in the Associated Press dispatches that Russia has accepted the first ten days in August as the time within which the first meeting of peace plenipotentiaries will take place. The precise date depends upon the time of the arrival at Washington of the Japanese plenipotentiaries.

WARM WEATHER HELPS.

Get Rid of Your Catarrah by Using Hyomei Now.

Everyone who has catarrah should take advantage of the warm weather to get rid of this annoying and distressing disease. The right treatment, faithfully followed, in May or June, will benefit much more quickly than in the winter and early spring. Do not try to cure catarrah of the head and throat by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germs of catarrah and prevent their growth.

Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrah that has ever been discovered.

When using Hyomei every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head and goes into the lungs, is charged with healing balsams that kill the catarrah germs and soothes and allays all irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement, and in a short time, especially if used at this season of the year, there will be no further trouble from catarrah.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and if after using you can say that the treatment has not helped you, E. J. Jenkins will return your money.

No waste, no trouble, always ready for use—Wigglestick Blueing. For sale only by Fountain & Co. 175

Former United States Consul General Says It Is On.

CHINESE IN EARNEST.

All Over the Empire Guilds Are at Work Using Their Influence to Have Better Treatment of Celestials in America.

San Francisco, June 28.—Edward G. Bellows, until recently consul general for the United States in Japan, arrived in San Francisco aboard the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria. Mr. Bellows brings renewed confirmation of the boycott which the merchants of China have declared upon United States manufacturers and upon goods and merchandise coming from this country. He adds a new phase to the condition of affairs by bringing the information that the Orientals have carried the boycott to such an extent that in many instances importers are having great difficulty in obtaining assistance in unloading American products.

“There can be no doubt there is a determined effort afoot in China whereby it is hoped to bring pressure to bear upon the United States through the medium of the boycott,” said Mr. Bellows. “The object, as has been already exploited, is to force this country to grant more liberal treatment to merchants and other Chinese who travel in the United States. All over China are guilds which are similar to our boards of trade, using the utmost influence to bring about the desired effect. Many are harkening to their teachings. In several ports hands who are accustomed to unload imported goods have been taught to leave untouched merchandise brought from our country. This condition of affairs is likely to grow worse.

“Of course I am not saying how effective this mode of procedure may prove. In fact, I think there is no great cause for alarm. Still, we must remember that in Germany and other nations we have worthy competitors in the Chinese trade, and what we lose is bound to be their gain, to a certain extent at least.”

RETURN TO WORK.

Most of the Workmen at Lodz Have Resumed Their Labors.

Warsaw, June 28.—Conditions at Lodz are unchanged excepting that most of the workmen have returned to work. Out of 60,000 men about 7000 from twenty-two factories remain out. Martial law still prevails. The streets are constantly patrolled and liquor shops all closed. Universal condemnation of the strike movement at Lodz has had the effect of quieting the situation and it is expected that the remaining strikers will soon resume work. There was a reiteration on the Warsaw bourse of the rumor that mobilization of troops in Russian Poland had commenced and possibly might be expected in Warsaw in two days and it has caused considerable excitement.

MUTINY AND MURDER.

Odessa, June 28.—The crew of the battleship Inroads have mutinied and murdered their officers. It is reported the mutineers are threatening to bombard the town. All work at the port has been stopped.

The story of his share in the responsibility for the war spread to the peasants and they have threatened dire vengeance.

Chicago, June 28.—Three armed men held up and robbed the people in a resort kept by Victoria Shaw in Dearborn street early Wednesday. There were many persons in the place and the robbers escaped with jewelry and money to the amount of $5000. Each of the men carried two revolvers. There were five cabmen waiting outside, and one of the three attended to them while the other two went inside. Within were fifteen women and ten men. The two robbers went through the place, driving the inmates before them. They lined them all up together in a room on the second floor, with their hands in the air. After robbing them they locked them in the room and breaking the telephone wires ran from the place. The two were joined by their companion in the street and the three disappeared in an alley.

MOUNT HOOD, FROM LEWIS & CLARK EXPOSITION GROUNDS AT PORTLAND, OREGON.

Visitors from this territory via the Columbia River to Portland to visit the Lewis & Clark Exposition will be impressed with the fact that nowhere else in the entire world has Nature provided such an abundance of unparalleled mountain scenery as in the Pacific Northwest; possessing, as it does, three general ranges which, linked by cross-spurs, traverse it in a north and south direction. Numberless are the excursions which can be taken into this wild and picturesque domain of forest and mountains where the sublimity and overpowering impressiveness of the giant trees cause one to stand in silent admiration; where the air, laden with balsam, is always cool, invigorating and healthful, and where the lakes, rivers and streams afford splendid hunting and fishing. Restful quiet is found here on every hand and the outing is one that the excursionist is ever anxious to repeat. But the trip of all mountain trips in this matchless scene wonderland is to the snow-capped summit of that mighty and silent sentinel which towers high above the lesser peaks. Mount Adams, Mount Saint Helens, Mount Jefferson and Mount Rainier, perpetually crowned with snow, stand forth in wondrous fascination, but more beautiful and impressive than all combined is Mount Hood, the pride of mountain climbers and tourists.

Fifty miles east of Portland by air line and ninety-three by shortest route, this favorite proudly rears its head 11,225 feet heavenward, thousands of feet above every neighboring object. It is one of the most notable peaks in the West and served as a guide post to Lewis & Clark on their memorable trip of exploration to the coast in 1805-6, and later to the pioneers who passed over the latent gold ledges of the rich Sumpner district, glanced at the beautiful valleys, climbed the mountains through forests of pine and fir, slept on the bunch-grass plains—Oregon's future grain fields—and, with one eye on Mount Hood, hastened on to Western Oregon. Easily accessible, hundreds climb to its summit every summer, the trip being delightful in every particular, and those who have once experienced it are always anxious to repeat the pleasure—the height not being so great as to be dangerous to the climber. Anticipating the innumerable delights and extraordinary experiences here but faintly suggested, a refreshing night's rest is taken at the town of Hood River, located on the line of the Oregon Ry. & Navigation Co., an early breakfast and the visitor is off for the trip to Cloud Capp Inn, which stands on the north-eastern slope of the mountain, at an elevation of 6,800 feet. Up through this pretty and prosperous town the coach starts on its spin, the road leading past scores of well-kept apple and strawberry farms, for which the valley is noted, the picturesque Inn, surrounded by smaller ones, being reached in time for dinner. Comfortably furnished, with pine-logs blazing in the huge fire-places and with a table well supplied with everything that a hungry visitor could wish, the place is most inviting.

From Cloud Capp Inn to the summit of Mount Hood seems but a step away, while in fact the distance to its top is four miles. A few minutes' walk from the Inn brings the mountain climber to Elliott Glacier, on the northeast slope of the mountain, a mile long by a third of a mile wide, at the base of which the stream of Hood River finds its source. Coe Glacier lies on the north slope of the mountain, Sandy Glacier on the southwest, Zigzag Glacier west of south, White River Glacier east of south, Newton Clark Glacier, southeast, Ladd Glacier west of Coe, and one vast unnamed icefield southwest of the Ladd Glacier. For three miles, from the Inn to the top of Coopers Spur, the way leads over ground devoid of snow, then for a mile snow and ice are encountered. The rope line, necessary to the ascent suggested, begins about 900 feet from the summit and for a fourth of this distance alpen-stock and pluck are also needed; but, the top once reached, the plucky climber is wonderfully repaid for the effort. Here the eye beholds, sixty miles to the north, Mount Adams, 12,470 feet high; on Puget Sound, 150 miles away, is Mount Rainier, 14,440 feet high; and to the west is Mount Saint Helens, 9,750 feet high; while for miles and miles the mighty Columbia is seen winding its way through this remarkable section; the whole presenting a picture impossible of description through any known art and without a known counterpart in the world. These attractions plus those afforded in New Mexico, Colorado, Utah and other northwestern territory along the lines of the Fort Worth and Denver City, the Denver and Rio Grande, the Oregon Short Line, the Oregon Ry. & Nav. Co., the Northern Pacific and the Burlington Roads constitute the cream of all America affords in scenic grandeur, and as the expense necessary to their enjoyment is far less this season than at any previous time, and much less than may be expected again for years to come—the railway ticketing arrangements being such as to admit of travelers going via one route and returning via another without extra expense, it is a foregone conclusion that many from the Southwest will, as they should, take advantage of the opportunities presented.

GIRLS SAVE GRAY.

Methodist Clergyman Came Near Being Roughly Handled.

Memphis, June 28.—A Commercial Appeal special from Casa, Ark., says that the Rev. J. L. Gray, a Methodist minister of Pottsville, has been saved from rough treatment at the hands of a mob only by several little girls, who clung close to him as he left a school house before which nearly a score of men had gathered intent upon seizing the preacher. Gray had been warned to preach no more at Casa, but disregarding the injunction, he rode into the town, accompanied by his small daughter. He was in the midst of a sermon delivered at the schoolhouse before a congregation composed mainly of women and children when the mob appeared before the building. The minister immediately left the pulpit and started for the door. A number of little girls, fearful for his safety, grasped his coat and clung close to his side until the minister had made his way through the mob and escaped into the darkness. The presence of the children, it is thought, restrained the mob. Gray was not pursued and left town Tuesday morning.

NORWEGIAN ARTILLERY IN WINTER.

National Interest Promises to Be Aroused in the Matter.

Houston, June 28.—National interest promises to be aroused by developments since the discharge from the Mexican prison at Chihuahua of Mac Stewart, the Confederate veteran, once condemned to life imprisonment for killing a Mexican policeman. A sensation is brewing along the lines of the Bowen-Loomis affair in the United States diplomatic service. In a sworn statement both by Dr. R. B. Lignoski of Houston, the man who is responsible for the freedom of Stewart and Mac Stewart, it is alleged, United States Consul W. W. Mills forced them to sign a false affidavit repudiating the publication in the Texas press of details of Stewart's imprisonment under a threat that unless they signed it the consul would keep Stewart in prison ten years longer. In the same affidavit it is charged that Mills received from C. C. Bevins of Houston $100 to be used in obtaining Stewart's freedom, but was not so applied and that Mills asked Stewart to sign a statement that such money was never paid, but the prisoner refused. Stewart now exhibits a letter from Bevins, since dead, wherein he recites the payment to Mills. Dr. Lignoski will carry the matter to the attention of the state department at Washington.

IN LEE'S HONOR.

Guest at a Camp Fire of Grand Army of the Republic.

Chicago, June 28.—For the second time in its history Columbia post No. 706, Grand Army of the Republic, has given a camp fire in honor of General Stephen D. Lee of Vicksburg, commander of the Confederate veterans of the south. All of the Confederate organizations of the city joined in the event.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by General John Corson Smith, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for Illinois; Junior Commander Patton of the National Grand Army of the Republic, and by other prominent veterans.

The feature of the bivouac was an appeal by the southern soldier for the return of the tattered flags and banners that adorn

Grand Army of the Republic trophy rooms to the men from whom they were won during the struggle of the '60s.

In referring to the recent action of congress providing for the return of the flags now in the war office in Washington to the Confederate soldiers, General Lee said: "I am glad the wound has healed so that these flags can be returned before those who loved them and bled for them are all under the sod."
